Program Notes

Decibel present a series of new works for acoustic and electronic instruments. New works by Leah Barclay, Kevin Robertson and Loren Holmes and Rosie Halsmith use the Talking Board score paradigm – an innovative, non linear approach to reading graphic scores within the Decibel ScorePlayer. A work devised in collaboration with French musique concrète artist Lionel Marchetti will also be featured, with the composer performing within the ensemble.

About the Artists

Based in Western Australia, Decibel are world leaders in the integration of acoustic instruments and electronics, the interpretation of graphic notations and pioneering digital score formats for composition and performance. Decibel have commissioned over 60 new works since their foundation in 2009, have toured Europe and Australia, recorded for ABC Classic FM and SWR German Radio, and released five albums to date on Australian and international labels. 2019 celebrates their tenth year.
