CITY RECITAL HALL

Exhibition One 2020: 28 January until 4 April

The Exhibition Project continues at City Recital Hall in 2020.

This exciting exhibition program has been developed to enliven City Recital Hall with contemporary visual art across its foyers and will primarily feature works by emerging artists.

The first exhibition of 2020 features works by artists Joi Murugavell, Serkan Ogdum, Donna Louise Fletcher and Cathryn McEwen.

About The Artists

A deeply humorous artist, Joi Murugavell is inspired by strength, not knowing and song lyrics. Joi's spontaneous practice is her way of finding understanding and escape through her art. The bizarre characters in her work perform nuanced interactions from day-to-day scenarios that are familiar to us, even in (or especially because of) their absurdity. Joi's work is collected by people in knowing need of a laugh.

Serkan Ogdum is a Turkish-Australian amateur photographer who has been taking photographs since 2014. Serkan's creative practice focuses on street photography and he uses digital editing to add new elements to his work. With this series of images - called 'Beyond Frames in Street Photography' – Serkan extends some elements of the images outside the original borders to explore the idea of adding new dimensions to photographs.

Donna Louise Fletcher is an Expressionist painter working from her home studio on the Central Coast of NSW. Donna studied at the University of Newcastle from 2005 to 2008 and graduated with a Bachelor of Fine Art.

"I rely on instinct to move the work forward; layer by layer the narrative is simultaneously concealed and revealed, this process continues until I feel the piece has been aesthetically resolved."

Prior to immigrating to Australia in 1984, Cathryn McEwen exhibited widely across her native country of Canada. She has been exhibiting in Australia since 1986. In 2011 Cathryn was invited to attend an Artist Residency in Yucatan, Mexico where she began working on a series entitled 'Water Works', and water has been her focus ever since.

"Water is a beautiful and challenging subject to paint. The water's edge is where the magic happens for me, especially when the surface reflects the surroundings or the changing light."

Supported by the City Recital Hall Encore Circle
